RED BLUFF POLICE DEPARTMENT
SQUAD MEETING/AWARDS CEREMONY 2018
February 15, 2018

SUMMARY:

Each year the Red Bluff Police Department Awards Committee reviews the activities, accomplishments, and actions of members of this Department that may be deserving of special recognition. The RBPDA Awards Committee is comprised of the Operations Division Commander, Support / Special Services Division Commander, the Records Manager, President of the Peace Officers Association, and an 'Officer at Large' selected by the Chief of Police.

Recommendations for awards or recognition are forwarded to the Chief of Police for review and approval. It is a tough decision to determine what should be considered for special recognition when the staff of the Red Bluff Police Department is conducting themselves honorably and professionally while serving with distinction on a daily basis.

Today, February 15, 2018, we recognized those individuals, units, teams or groups that performed functions that the Awards Committee realized was a significant contribution towards our mission of Public Safety during the year 2017. Please congratulate all of those whom we recognized for their efforts and contribution.
