PRESS RELEASE

Case Number: 16-66

CRIME/INCIDENT: Assault with Bodily Injury, False Imprisonment, Unlawful Obstruction of Emergency Telephone Use, Parole Hold
LOCATION: O’Nite Trailer Park (130 Gilmore Road)
SUSPECT: Roehrich, Frank (49 years old of Red Bluff)
DATE OCCURRED: January 6th, 2016, approximately 10:40 p.m.

SUMMARY:

Officers responded to the O’Nite Trailer Park regarding a domestic disturbance. The female victim called and reported that she had been assaulted and needed medical attention. When officers arrived, they learned that the victim’s boyfriend, (Frank Roehrich) had struck the victim several times causing obvious injuries to her face. The victim was transported to St. Elizabeth Hospital by ambulance for treatment and has since been released.

Upon further investigation, it was learned that after Roehrich assaulted the victim, he took her cell phone after she told him she was going to call the police. Roehrich also physically held onto the victim and blocked the front door to prevent her from leaving the trailer.

Roehrich, who is currently on CDC parole, was arrested for the above listed charges.
