PRESS RELEASE

Case Number: 16-331

Contact Person: On duty sergeant

SUSPECT:	Unknown white male
CRIME/INCIDENT:	Attempted robbery
LOCATION:	Bank of America, 955 Main Street Red Bluff
DATE OCCURRED:	January 26, 2016
TIME:	2:00 PM

On January 26, 2016 at about 2 PM, the Red Bluff Police Department received a report of an attempted robbery at Bank of America, located at 955 Main Street.

Officers learned a male suspect entered the bank shortly before 2 PM. The suspect approached a bank teller and demanded currency. The teller paused for a moment and the suspect fled from the bank without any money. The suspect was last seen walking southbound on Washington Street.

Officers from the Red Bluff Police Department, the Tehama County District Attorney's Office and the Tehama County Probation Department scoured the area; however, they were unable to locate the suspect.

The suspect is described as a white male adult, 20 to 30 years of age. The suspect was clean shaven and wore wire framed glasses. The suspect has short balding sandy blond hair and was last seen wearing a blue and white plaid shirt and blue jeans. The bank has provided photographs of the suspect, which are attached to this press release.

No weapon was mentioned or displayed during this incident; however, citizens are urged not to contact the suspect if seen and are asked to telephone the Red Bluff Police Department.
