PRESS RELEASE

Case Number: 16-1363

Contact Person: Watch Commander

CRIME/INCIDENT: Robbery
LOCATION: Rabobank 500 Luther Road
DATE OCCURRED: 4/19/2016 at approximately 11:31 a.m.

SUMMARY:

On April 19, 2016 at approximately 1131 hours:

Red Bluff Police received a call of robbery in progress at Rabobank (500 Luther Road).

While in route, officers were provided with a description of the female who fled the bank on foot with an undisclosed amount of money. Officers arrived to the area along with investigators from the Tehama County District Attorney's Office. A DA investigator located a female matching the description sitting in a parked vehicle in the area of Kirsten Court. When the investigator tried to contact the female, she fled in her vehicle, leading the investigator and Red Bluff Police officers on a pursuit reaching speeds up to 75MPH westbound on Kimball Road.

The pursuit ended in the area of Donita Drive and Crosspoint Way when the female collided into a parked car and ran from her vehicle. The female was subsequently apprehended and positively identified as 29 year old Sara Beth Natho of Red Bluff.

Natho was booked into the Tehama County Jail for 211 PC – Robbery.
