CRIME/INCIDENT:	School lockdown
LOCATION:	Sacred Heart School, 2355 Monroe Avenue
DATE OCCURRED:	September 6, 2016
TIME:	11:34 AM

On September 6, 2016 at about 11:34 AM, the Red Bluff Police Department received a report of a male wearing tactical clothing in the vacant field just north of Sacred Heart School. Officers were immediately dispatched to the area and arrived minutes later. The school was contacted as a precautionary measure and placed on lock-down status.

Officers contacted a 31 year old male in the vacant field as the caller had described. The male was dressed in all black. The male told the officers he was in the area to shoot "air soft" guns. Officers located the air soft guns in the male's vehicle. No actual firearms were located.

The male was admonished and released. The school lockdown was ended at about 11:50 AM.
